

PRELIOS INTEGRA RECEIVES ADVISORY MANDATE FOR DUE DILIGENCE ACTIVITY FROM AEW GROUP

Milan, 02 August 2017 –Prelios Integra S.p.A., the leading provider of real estate services in Italy, part of the Prelios Group, has been given an advisory mandate for due diligence by AEW.

The due diligence team of Prelios Integra, led by Daniela Marta, has assisted and supported AEW in the technical due diligence for the recent acquisition of the retail space located in Milan in Via Torino 22, which will host the new Muji store.

Prelios Integra S.p.A. is the leading provider of real estate services in Italy, the first company to specialise in these high value-added services. Prelios Integra has approximately €6 billion in AUM (Assets under Management) and manages more than 7 million square metres. It has provided integrated real estate services in Italy for more than 20 years. Since 2014, it has also operated as engineering company. The company, which belongs to the Prelios S.p.A Group, listed on the Italian stock exchange, manages real estate portfolios on behalf of large business groups, asset management companies and Italian public and private institutions as well as leased real estate, and supports investors and businesses in developing, planning and executing real estate initiatives. With offices in Milan and Rome, Prelios Integra has a staff of 100 and a partner network counting more than 500 service companies and professionals.

For more information:

Prelios Press Office Tel.
+39/02/6281.4826/33628
pressoffice@prelios.com

Community Strategic Communications Advisers
Tel. +39/02/89404231
prelios@communitygroup.it

Investor Relations Prelios Tel. +39/02/6281.4104
ir@prelios.com
www.prelios.com