

PRESS RELEASE

Milan, 26 April 2012 - With regards to the rumours published today in Il Sole 24 Ore, in the article entitled "Real Estate, German axis for Prelios", the company confirmed that negotiations are underway as part of a competitive process, for the possible sale of the German services platform.

This process also involves the German company Bilfinger & Berger, which has also shown interest in purchasing shares in some Italian service companies and a minority stake in Prelios SGR.

Conditions have not yet been defined, considering that negotiations are currently underway, and at this stage no indication can therefore be provided.
