

PRESS RELEASE

Prelios Agency exclusive advisor to Sperlari for selection of new Milan headquarters

Milan, February 11, 2019 – Prelios Agency (Prelios Group), a real estate advisory and brokerage specialist, has assisted Sperlari, a company in the Katjes International Group, the world leader in confectionery, in its search for new headquarters in Milan.

After Prelios Agency was selected as exclusive advisor on the search for the new premises, careful scouting began of the properties available in the city's business center, leading to identification of a high-profile office building in Piazza del Duomo. The final choice is a partially restructured location with a surface area of 670 sq.m.

"We are very pleased with the result," said Sperlari CEO Piergiorgio Burei. "The new site is an important part of our project to relaunch Sperlari at national and international level. It will be an opportunity to give the company greater visibility, to create a new workplace and above all to offer our people a stimulating and dynamic environment."

Mauro Fiori, Director of Institutional Leasing at Prelios Agency, said: "We are delighted with the outcome and the chance to work as exclusive advisor to such an important player as Sperlari. I want to congratulate the leasing team for their excellent work, which positions us as one of the key players in the sector and consolidates our real estate advisory services for national and international clients."
